Bring: LUNG CHUAN STRAIGHT SWORD or Wooden Straight Sword

Why the Sword is Respected:

The Sword Art has been respected in China not only because the techniques and skills needed are difficult to learn, but also more importantly because the morality and spirit of the practitioner has to be of very high order in order to reach the highest level of the Art.

The training is long and arduous, and most people first learn to use other short weapons, such as the saber (tao), in order to build a foundation.
